

Remarks

- 1) Applicant thanks the Examiner for his office action and for recognizing applicant's contribution by identifying the allowable subject matter. Applicant hopes that this amendment and response will further the understanding of applicant's invention.
- 2) Claims 25, 26, 48, 49, and 57 are pending in the application. Claims 1-24, 27-47, 50-56, and 58-61 have been canceled without prejudice.
- 4) Applicant maintains all rights to any subject matter reflected in the canceled claims, which may be claimed in subsequent application.
- 5) It is believed that the amended claims now relate only to subject matter indicated by the Examiner to be allowable.
- 7) In light of the showing and all other reasons stated above, applicant believes that the rejections and objections presented by the Examiner in the office action mailed to applicant November 15, 2007 were overcome. Applicant therefore submits that the application with the claims as amended are in condition for allowance. Reconsideration and withdrawal of the rejection and issue of a notice of allowance on all pending claims is respectfully solicited.

Respectfully submitted
